[CHINA MAIL' SPECIAL SERVICE.]

HIS EXCELLENCE LIU KUN-YI.

CONDITION NEARLY HOPELESS.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SHANGHAI, Oct. 1, 3:12 p.m.

The condition of His Excellency Liu Kun-yi, the Viceroy at Nanking, is considered nearly hopeless.

[REUTER'S SERVICE.]

DEATH OF EMILE ZOLA.

LONDON, September 29th, 1902.
Emile Zola has been found dead in his own house, the cause being accidental asphyxiation. His wife is also affected, and seriously ill.

[Emile Zola, the French realistic novelist, born in Paris, April 2, 1840, passed his infancy in Provence with his father, the originator of the canal which bears his name. After he then studied in the Ecole Saint-Louis de Paris, and obtained employment in the well-known publishing firm of Hachette and Co. He gave up that situation exclusively to literature. He has been an industrious contributor to the newspaper press, and has written numerous works of fiction. In 1886, M. Zola was appointed a Knight of the Legion of Honour, and in 1891 (April) was made President of the French Society of Men of Letters. During recent years Mons. Zola has repeatedly offered himself as a candidate for election to the Forty Immortals of the French Academy, but that eminently conservative body of literary men has repeatedly refused to receive him in its midst. He is reported to have written his little Roman Catholic idyll, Le Gamin, with a view of propitiating men who could not tolerate his realism, but that as it is, he was not elected in 1891, when Flaubert was chosen instead of him, nor indeed subsequently. In 1893, M. Zola visited London on the invitation of the Institute of Journalists, whom he addressed on the subject of 'Anonymity in Journalism.' He was present at a reception given by the Corporation at the Guildhall. During 1894 he published 'Lourdes,' a work containing lurid descriptions of the pilgrimages made to the Pyrenean town of that name. It created great stir among certain religious circles, and when M. Zola subsequently raised Rome and sought admission to the presence of the Pope, Leo XIII., he was given an audience. Immense editions of Zola's works have been published, though in many countries his translators have been prosecuted and punished as criminals by authorities whom his realism has scandalized.]

THE P. & O. COMPANY.

The Shipping Gazette states that the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company has decided to make Southampton its home port.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S HEALTH.

A rise in President Roosevelt's temperature and increase of the local symptoms, have necessitated the making of an incision exposing the bone of the leg, which has been found to be slightly affected. The physicians in attendance are confident of the President's recovery.

THE RETROcession OF THE SHANHAIKWAN RAILWAY.

Sir Ernest Satow, British Minister at Peking, has been instructed to begin the restoration to China of the Shanhaikwan railway immediately. The Standard-Tientsin correspondent telegraphs that the Russians restored their section to China on the 26th instant.

THE DEATH OF EMILE ZOLA.

LATER.
M. and Madame Zola retired to bed at ten yesterday evening, and it is supposed that a defective flue in a stove which they had in their room caused an accumulation of poisonous fumes. Madame Zola is now out of danger.

The rumours of suicide in the case of M. Zola, which were current, are absolutely baseless.

THE U. S. PRESIDENCY.

The Montana Republican Convention has endorsed the re-election of President Roosevelt.

THE CRIMES ACT.—MORE ARRESTS.

[The Editor and Manager of the newspaper 'Irish People' have been sentenced to two months' imprisonment, and the Secretary of the Irish League at East Limerick to three months' imprisonment, for intimidation.

Unauthorised Building Works.

At the Magistracy this morning, before Mr F. A. Hazlind, Mr P. T. Crisp, Inspector of Buildings, charged Wong Shiu Tong, owner of No. 369 Queen's Road Central, with carrying out extensive alterations on that property without submitting plans to the D. P. W. and obtaining permission. The defendant stated that he told the architect to send in the plans. A fine of $100 was imposed.
